Fluid animated images on display

Kevin Mazutinec recalls the moment when he saw the potential for his fluid animated images to be part of a larger art project and creative collaboration.

Mazutinec, an instructor and technician in Vancouver Island University's art and design department, produced Meridian, a digitally-animated abstract work that was part of Datastream 4 – Proliferating Signs and Cultural Layers.

The result is Meridian: A Multimedia Performance Event, Friday (March 16), 7:30 p.m., at Malaspina Theatre.

In addition to the screening of Meridian will be contributions from Marian van der Zon, vocal and acoustic instruments, Justin McGrail spoken word, and Robin Davies, soundscapes with software instruments.

"We all teach in the faculty of art and humanities, representing visual art, graphic design, media studies and women's studies. We're giving each other lots of trust and room for creativity," Mazutinec said.
