

Philosophy Department

PHIL 310: INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHICAL THOUGHT

Need an upper level elective? Curious about philosophy?
PHIL 310 might be right for you!

PHIL 310 is an introductory course in philosophy – for advanced students in other disciplines. It covers theories of knowledge, reality, and ethics – from eastern and western traditions and from ancient to modern thinkers. It weaves together different theories in answering central questions, such as “What is wisdom?” PHIL 310 assumes no prior knowledge of the discipline, but allows for a more sophisticated introduction amongst senior-level students.

Prerequisites: Third-year standing

Spring 2024, Dr. James Atkinson
Tuesdays/Thursdays: 4:00-5:30