VIU Learning Technology Orientation for Students

This Fall, to better support the busy lives of students and employees at VIU while maintaining safe social distance, the Centre for Innovation and Excellence in Learning (CIEL) will be offering fully online self-registration orientations for VIULearn and other teaching and learning technologies that are supported by CIEL.

Choose a day and time that works best for you and click on Register Here. Once you register for the session you will be sent a link to the Zoom webinar. On the day of the orientation click on the Click Here to Join link in the email you receive.
