

		Fail	Satisfactory	Good	Excellent
	Numerical value	< 5	6	7/8	9/10
Introduction/Crime Description		<input type="checkbox"/> There is no introduction <input type="checkbox"/> Purpose of project is not clear. <input type="checkbox"/> Crime is not described.	<input type="checkbox"/> There is an introduction, but it is not clear or may not be related to the rest of the project. <input type="checkbox"/> Purpose of project stated but may not be clear. <input type="checkbox"/> Crime is described but may not be clear.	<input type="checkbox"/> There is a clear introduction to the project. <input type="checkbox"/> Purpose of project is stated. <input type="checkbox"/> Crime is described.	<input type="checkbox"/> There is a clear, explicit, introduction to project. <input type="checkbox"/> The purpose of paper explicitly stated. <input type="checkbox"/> Crime is succinctly described, with key details.
Conclusion		<input type="checkbox"/> Conclusion is missing.	<input type="checkbox"/> Connection with the rest of the project is surface level only or formulaic.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ideas in the conclusion adequately connect introduction and body of the project.	<input type="checkbox"/> The conclusion clearly connects introduction and body of the project with insightful comments/analysis.
Theoretical Analysis		<input type="checkbox"/> Criminological theory is not outlined. <input type="checkbox"/> There are no references to the textbook. <input type="checkbox"/> There are no examples provided. <input type="checkbox"/> Paper does not follow theoretical evidence, and is missing references to academic references. Papers lacks critical analysis of both the crime and the theory.	<input type="checkbox"/> Criminological theory is outlined with little detail, only a few references to the textbook. <input type="checkbox"/> Examples from textbook are provided but may not be clearly connected to the theory. <input type="checkbox"/> Paper follows theoretical evidence, minimally backs up opinion with academic reference. Demonstrate basic critical analysis of both the crime and the theory.	<input type="checkbox"/> Criminological theory is outlined with some detail, with references from textbook. <input type="checkbox"/> Relevant examples are used to demonstrate connection to theory. <input type="checkbox"/> Paper follows theoretical evidence, sometimes backs up opinion with academic reference. Demonstrate critical analysis of both the crime and the theory.	<input type="checkbox"/> Criminological theory is explicitly outlined, with references utilized from textbook and outside sources. <input type="checkbox"/> Examples are clearly defined, and relevant, and connected to theory. <input type="checkbox"/> Paper follows theoretical evidence, clearly backs up opinion with academic reference. Demonstrate a sound, logical critical analysis of both the crime and the theory.
Scholarly writing	Clearly organizes relevant ideas	<input type="checkbox"/> Ideas are "scattered" <input type="checkbox"/> Project is difficult to follow <input type="checkbox"/> Terms not clearly defined or defined inconsistently	<input type="checkbox"/> May not always be clear. <input type="checkbox"/> Organization of ideas needs improvement <input type="checkbox"/> Terms may not be clearly defined.	<input type="checkbox"/> Concise <input type="checkbox"/> Relevant ideas flow well from topic to topic <input type="checkbox"/> Terms mostly clearly defined.	<input type="checkbox"/> Very clear and concise <input type="checkbox"/> Ideas flow smoothly and are sequentially organized <input type="checkbox"/> Terms clearly defined.
	Structure	<input type="checkbox"/> Major errors in sentence structure result in writing that is incomprehensible <input type="checkbox"/> Numerous spelling errors	<input type="checkbox"/> Minor errors in sentence structure impact on comprehensibility of writing <input type="checkbox"/> Minor spelling errors.	<input type="checkbox"/> Minor errors in sentence structure do not impact on comprehensibility of writing <input type="checkbox"/> A few minor spelling or grammatical errors.	<input type="checkbox"/> Extremely strong sentence structure <input type="checkbox"/> No spelling or grammatical errors.
Research; references and citations		<input type="checkbox"/> Citations & references do not follow APA format <input type="checkbox"/> Insufficient or no citations to support material presented.	<input type="checkbox"/> Citations & references may or may not follow APA format <input type="checkbox"/> Insufficient citations to support material presented.	<input type="checkbox"/> Citations & references generally follow APA format <input type="checkbox"/> Material mostly supported by necessary citations.	<input type="checkbox"/> Citations & references follow APA format <input type="checkbox"/> Material supported by necessary citations.